

PANDITS RAJAN & SAJAN MISRA WITH PANDIT BIRJU MAHARAJ

Accompanied by Kumar Bose (Tabla),
& Pt. Jai Kishan Maharaj
(Pakhawaj)

A dynamic tour joining the fabulous duo of pandits Rajan & Sajan Misra with the master of Kathak dance,
the great pandit Birju Maharaj.

SAT 21ST JULY 7.30pm

(doors open 6.45pm)

Pavilion Theatre,

Brighton Dome

01273 709 709

www.brightondome.org

PANDITS RAJAN & SAJAN MISRA WITH PANDIT BIRJU MAHARAJ

A dynamic tour joining the fabulous duo, pandits Rajan & Sajan Misra with the master of Kathak dance, the great pandit Birju Maharaj.

The great vocalist brothers pandit RAJAN & SAJAN MISRA are considered to be two of India's most renowned Khyal singers.

Pandit Birju Maharaj has given a new dimension to Kathak and as a choreographer, he is the finest in the world today. His bold and intellectual compositions in traditional themes are brilliant, whereas his contemporary works are also refreshing in concept, crisp and entertaining.

The exceptionally gifted Pt. Jai Kishan Maharaj hails from the renowned family of professional dancers and is Pt. Birju Maharaj's son. He will be accompanying on the Pakhawaj and is well known for his flair with rhythm and is an excellent multi-talented percussionist who is today regarded as the torch bearer of an ancient tradition coming from a great lineage.

Accompanying on tabla they are joined by Kumar Bose, a leading exponent of the Benares gharana of tabla playing. Hailing from Calcutta, a centre of excellence for tabla playing, Kumar Bose has established himself as one of the most influential tabla players of modern times.

It is mainly mime that this very special tour aims to explore. This is a rare occasion where pandits Rajan & Sajan Mishra will sing compositions to which pandit Birju Maharaj will perform the expressive aspects of Kathak, bhav and abhinaya.

All tours are subject to change without notice

